CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFLETS.

—Fickle May.
—Cling to your umbrellas.
—A regular epidemic of installations.
—The grounds of the Blind Institute are being greatly improved.
—It is almost time for the hay-fever associations to meet to discuss the best kind of wipes.
—Alex. F. Gifford, of the Gazette office, says that the boy that arrived at his house last night makes the fourth.

—Dr. E. E. Loomis was among the representatives from Janesville who attended the meeting of the State Medical Board in Milwaukee.

—R. W. Ellison sold and shipped to C. E. Cole, of Chicago, the sorrel mare, "Lady Baxter," for $1,000 cash. She can get over the track at a 2:30 gal.

—Mr. W. E. Lewis, State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, arrived today to take charge of the convention that begins here this evening.

—By the falling off in the Sunday school contributions, and the economical saying of nickels among the boys, any one could easily guess that the circus was coming.

—To-night at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, over the old postoffice, will be held the first meeting of the convention consisting of delegates from this district.

—John P. Williams is about to engage himself in the interest of the Provident Savings' Life Insurance Co., of New York. This company have struck back on rates, furnishing insurance, from ages 25 to 40, for an average of $12.50.

—Mr. J. H. Myers has concluded to make Janesville his abiding place again, and has opened up a large and new stock of groceries and supplies, fruits and vegetables, in the store next to the Myers House entrance on Main street.

—In a recent issue we noticed a remarkable performance of Janesville and Mate at St. Louis. H. D. McKinley to-day received a letter from the owner, stating that they trotted in 2:28 on Monday last over the St. Louis track, the road wagon weighing 245, and the driver 225. This shows that the team is one of the fastest west of New York. Ald. McKinley had a chance to ride behind them last week.

—Wilbur Carle's horse took a run yesterday afternoon starting at Tallman's laboratory, and quickly spilling young Murdoch who was driving. The horse ran down Milwaukee street and almost demolished Robert's Horn's carriage, left the wagon-box in front of Brook's gun shop, took a whirl around by the corn exchange, and spilled out a couple of fellows from Guy Carter's carriage, and left the rest of the wagon in front of Rubin's saloon. The horse was captured at Milwaukee street bridge.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock to-day stood at 57 degrees above zero, and at 2 o'clock at 67 degrees above. Cloudy. The indications to-day are falling, followed by rising barometer, increasing northerly winds, partly cloudy and clearing cooler weather.

ORGANIZING THE BOARD.

The new board of trustees of the Institution for the Blind met yesterday and formally organized by the election of B. R. Hinckley, of Oconomowoc, as President, H. S. Hogoboom, Secretary, and Cyrus Miner, Treasurer.

All these gentlemen are well and favorably known throughout the State, and their appointment is a guarantee that the business of the institution will be faithfully done. No one of the great charities of the State is in better condition than this, and we predict for it a year of prosperity.

BASE BALL.

There will be a game of ball on the Mutual Ball Park to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, between two of the best nines in the city. Those who visit the ground either as players or spectators are requested to enter through the gate and not over the fence; also to keep away from Dr. Whiting's premises, as it will be impossible to play on the grounds this summer unless the best of order is preserved. Those interested will please bear this in mind.

At Cincinnati yesterday the home nine defeated the Chicago 9 to 3.

At Indianapolis the home club and Milwaukee tied on the tenth inning each having scored 2, and darkness preventing further playing.

At Manchester the Harvards were defeated by the home nine by 4 to 1.

At Syracuse, Stars 4, Tecumshes 2.

At Lowell, Mass., Lowells 5, Allegheny's 1.

At Cleveland, Erics 2, Forest City 1.

At Lynn, Mass., Live Oaks 1, Crickets 0, fifteen innings.

At Springfield, Mass., Buffalos 11, Springfield 1.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

In the suit of Henry P. Benjamin against George Covert, of Clinton, the testimony was closed yesterday afternoon. The case was given to the jury to-day, after full argument by the respective counsel on the intricate questions of law involved therein. Messrs. Cassaday & Carpenter argued the matter on the part of the plaintiff, and John R. Bennett, Esq., and John Winans, Esq., for the defence. After brief deliberation, the jury found a verdict for the defendant.

The case of Schenk against the Beloit Water Power Company, in which the jury were sent out on yesterday to view the premises, was taken up this morning, and is expected to occupy several days in its trial. The complaint in this suit is that the defendant raised the height of its dam, so as to cause the water of Rock River to set back upon the plaintiff's land, and the plaintiff lays his damages sustained by such damage at the sum of one thousand dollars. Messrs. Winans & McElroy, and Messrs. Bennett & Sale for the plaintiff, S. J. Todd, Esq., and Messrs. Orton and Parker for the defence.

ROBBINS IS COMING.

The City Billed for May 15—The Citizens of Rock County Will Doubtless Crowd the Canvas.

From all accounts received thus far concerning Burr Robbins' great circus and menagerie, it appears that in spite of lowery skies and muddy roads, he has had such crowds of people that in several places, the tents have been filled almost to overflowing, the sale of tickets had to be stopped, and hundreds turned away, unable to obtain admission. This success which is everywhere attending the Great American and German Allied Shows, is a worthy tribute to the enterprising and gentlemanly proprietor and manager, who has spared neither time nor money to gather under his mammoth tents the most wonderful curiosities which were ever crowded into a menagerie, and the largest number of acrobatic novelties and world-famed artists ever gathered in one organization.

The people in this city and vicinity have had the best of opportunities to know all of the ins and outs of not only Burr Robbins' every day life, but of the every-day life of many of those connected with his show. For four or five seasons he has wintered here, and here it is that he makes his home, and as George Elliot says, when you meet a man "at breakfast and always," it is easy to see what manner of man he is. There is here but one opinion and that is, that Mr. Robbins socially and professionally is one of the most straightforward, generous-hearted and enterprising gentlemen who ever took up his residence here. A long, personal contact with many of his employees has taught the citizens that the same spirit shown by their leader characterizes them. Nothing is ever heard against them either individually or collectively, but much is heard and seen in their favor. Although the Spring Brook farm is a little city by itself, no disturbance ever mars its peacefulness, and though its representatives have mingled year after year with the citizens, and are constantly going and coming upon the streets there is yet to be recorded anything which would cast any blot upon the record of the company. Most of the men are total abstainers from all intoxicants, and none are allowed to become the least under the influence of the cup, their contracts specifying that they shall keep strictly temperate.

When the residents of a city where Robbins and his men have been permanently located, can thus testify to the uprightness of their daily walk and conversation, it is not to be wondered at that like words of well merited praise are heard from all parts of the country.

But another thing that the Janesville people have learned by this intimate contact. They have had a chance to see for themselves the growth of the enterprise, and the results of Mr. Robbins' lavish expenditures in order to increase the instructiveness and attractiveness of his show. They have been behind the curtain, as it were, and not only once, but many times, and have had a more leisurely chance to examine the many living curiosities with which the menagerie is crowded, and can better testify to its merit than any others, and if necessary hundreds of affidavits could be procured from those who know, and are willing to affirm, that there is much more to be seen than the bill-boards and dodgers can enumerate. During the last winter Mr. Robbins has expended almost fabulous amounts in order to obtain possession of many curiosities in the animal kingdom, which he alone possesses, and which can be found in no other collection on the continent.

In organizing his company he has shown the same enterprise, and has gathered about him a larger number of noted artists than were ever before, and elsewhere, has Mr. Robbins demonstrated the fact that the show business can be made, and under his management is made, as respectable as any other. Not a word or an act is allowed which can in any sense offend the taste of the most fastidious moralist, and all is clean and wholesome.

Every advertised promise is fulfilled, not merely in letter, but in spirit, and all forms of deception and humbugery are driven beyond the lines.

Such is the prevailing opinion in this community, based upon a personal and frequent contact with the show and its people. Burr Robbins has already billed this city, and it is safe to say that the mere announcement that he will be here Wednesday, May 15, will call together here, where he is best known, the largest crowd that ever tried to get under the cover of canvas. He truly merits at the hands of the people of Rock county a rousing benefit, and will doubtless receive it, not only because all who attend will receive personally more than their money's worth, but also because here it is that Mr. Robbins pays out large sums of money to meet the necessary expenses of wintering and outfitting in the spring. Robbins never pinches a dollar, and is always just and liberal in his dealings, and generous in all matters of public enterprise, and in no part of the country will the citizens so gladly rally about him, and show that they feel for him and for his same friendly interest which he has always shown toward this city and county. Mr. Robbins has added much to the business prosperity as well as to the social attractiveness of the vicinity and the people will doubtless show him on the 15th of May that they appreciate the fact.

OUR RAILROAD MEN.

E. T. Stetson's company showed up strong last night at the Opera House in "Neck and Neck." The storm caused a slim house, but those present were unusually enthusiastic. The play has a deep plot, and is full of startling features, and thrilling scenes, which were well brought out. In fact the audience were well disappointed, as the company contained much more strength and versatility than was expected. Mr. Stetson took two leading parts, and carried them through well, changing in a twinkling, and so perfectly, that few would have known that such was the fact had it not been announced. The support was much better than is afforded by most of the companies which come to this city. To-night there will be an entire change of programme, opening with a farce followed by "Our Railroad Men," which promises to be fully as worthy of a liberal patronage as last night's performance.

EXPERIMENTS WITH TREES.

Those who have experienced so much trouble in transplanting hickory trees will learn with pleasure the results of some tests made by Messrs. Merrill and Bump of this city. The great trouble has been that in transplanting, it is almost impossible to keep from breaking off the end of the long tap-root which strikes deep into the ground, and when this is broken off the tree does not seem to be able to sustain vitality enough to endure transplanting. A year ago this spring these gentlemen went out into the woods, and finding some young hickory trees, dug trenches two feet or more deep leading to the tap-roots, and on reaching them cut them off, and then filled in the dirt, and did not otherwise disturb them. This spring they visited the trees and found them thriving fully as well as any of their fellows, and on digging them up, found that from the tap-root had sprouted forth small branch-roots which were furnishing sustenance to the trees. From this it would appear that the trees have not strength enough to bear transplanting and the rude breaking off of the tap-root at the same time, but that if a year before transplanting the tap-root is cut off, these tendrils will strike out and the following year they can be taken up and transplanted with an assurance that they will live.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

Interesting Exercises at the Clear Lake Temple of Honor—Presentations by the Ladies.

Last evening at the Methodist church in Milton Junction occurred the public installation of the newly elected officers of the Clear Lake Temple of Honor, State Deputy G. W. T. Clark, Barnham, officiating, assisted by Acting Deputy G. W. U. M. A. Norris. The church was filled in spite of unfavorable weather, and the exercises were decidedly interesting. The following is the roll of officers installed:

W. C. T.—H. H. Stockman.
W. V. T.—H. R. Hinckley.
W. R. W.—J. Collins.
W. A. R.—W. A. Dodd.
W. F. R.—N. E. Maxon.
W. T. F.—Brandt.
Chaplain—Rev. A. L. P. Loomis.
W. U.—N. F. Daggett.
W. D. U.—S. B. Hazard.
W. G.—O. D. Catlin.
W. S.—A. O. Allen.

Mrs. R. G. Greenman happily surprised the members by the presentation, in behalf of the ladies, of an elegant Bible, and Miss Edna Burdick, in a brief speech, also presented to the Temple in behalf of the ladies, an elegant banner.

Rev. A. L. P. Loomis responded appropriately in behalf of the order.

Short addresses were made by Messrs. S. Clark Barnham, H. R. Hinckley, F. C. Bute, J. B. Mallen, and H. H. Stockman.

The exercises were interspersed with choice music well rendered by a choir consisting of Mrs. R. J. Greenman, Mesdames Button and Messrs. Titsworth, Maxon, and Gates.

At the close of the exercises, the W. V. T., elect, H. R. Hinckley moved that thanks be tendered to the choir for their valuable assistance on this and other occasions, which was enthusiastically adopted.

McCOLLISTER'S BENEFIT.

Dr. McCollister was tendered a very flattering reception, last evening, at Lapin's Hall, it being a befitting close to the arduous labors of that enthusiastic cold-water worker. The hall was beautifully and tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers, and drapery of red and white ribbons. The motto of the red-ribbon club, "Dare to do right," stood out boldly, the letters being wrought with evergreens and bits of ribbons. There were also upon the walls, "Welcome," and "Charity for All," as well as "Malice for None." In the center of the hall stood a large urn, covered with mosses, vines and flowers, and surrounded by birds, the urn being a receptacle for such contributions as were intended for Dr. McCollister. The musical features of the entertainment were particularly attractive, and consisted of a quartet given by Misses Nannie Royce and Fannie Lynn, and Messrs. Follansbee and St. John. Mr. Follansbee gave a comic medley. Mr. D. D. Bennett gave a pleasing solo, the chorus of which was taken up by Misses Martha Willey and Nannie Royce, and Mr. St. John. Mrs. C. B. Conrad gave a solo.

Mr. James Sutherland presented the contents of the urn to Dr. McCollister who briefly responded, and after a season of sociability, the younger portion adjourned to Apollo Hall for a merry whirl and waltz, and the older portion paddled home through the rain.

The affair was, in spite of the weather, a grand success.

ROBBINS IN MILWAUKEE.

In Milwaukee Burr Robbins drew more people than he knew what to do with, though his tents are of mammoth size, and can cover many hundreds of people. The Milwaukee Sentinel, which is very conservative, and very critical, and which is always very economical in its praise of shows, gives this tribute:

Burr Robbins' circus and menagerie exhibited at the corner of Fifth and Poplar streets, yesterday, to large audiences, afternoon and evening. The animal show is good and the circus performance much better than the average. The riding is all graceful and daring, particularly that of a very pretty and nobby young lady. The swing trapeze and balance act of another young woman, whose splendid physical development and modest ways were alike noticeable, was more than good. It is one of the best acts ever done in the ring. All the acrobatic acts were also commendable. The entire performance was devoid of the broadness and vulgarity so common in circuses, and every individual about the institution looked clean and honest and behaved civilly. In fact, such an amount of attention was paid to decorum and propriety that only a few would have been astonished had the performance opened with a hymn and closed with a benediction. There is an absolute air of freshness and decency about the establishment that commend it beyond all precedent. This afternoon and evening will close the engagement here.

The Evening Wisconsin, in speaking of the same performance says:

The circus was so thoroughly jammed

last evening that hundreds were turned away, unable to obtain admittance. This evening they will have another opportunity. The show is really excellent, and Mr. Robbins can congratulate himself on the impression he has made. The riding, trapeze business, and general tumbling, were superior to the ordinary efforts in that line, and the vast audience testified its approval in hearty applause. Undoubtedly there will be another crowd to-night.

FOOTVILLE.

The youngest son of Mr. G. M. Goch, aged four years, was buried on Monday last.

A large number of people went from here, last Sabbath, to witness the baptizing at Hanover. About twenty-three persons were baptized.

The Clippers, of this place, again defeated the Nameless, of Janesville, on Saturday last. The Nameless played a very good game, but it is almost impossible for any club to bat a ball from Hunt. The following is the score:

Clippers..... 2 1 0 0 3 0 2-14
Nameless..... 0 0 1 1 0 1 0-3
Base hits, Clippers, 24.
Base hits, Nameless, 5.

Two bases, Doran, Clippers, 3.
Bases on called balls, Nameless, 2.
Passed balls, Owen, Clippers, 1.
Passed balls, Richardson, Nameless, 4.
Wild pitches, Hunt, Clippers, 0.
Wild pitches, Stevens, Nameless, 11.

Left on bases, Clippers, 6.
Left on bases, Nameless, 7.
Time of game, 1 hour and 51 minutes.
Umpire, F. Meehan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brown, old residents of this place, made their friends of this place a short visit last week. They leave for Nebraska soon.

Mrs. Torpy met with a serious accident on Monday last, while lifting a boiler, she slipped and fell, senseless. She is improving at present.

S. H. Brown, of this place, who has been breaking on the road for some time, has recently been appointed conductor.

The Nameless club will play Frank Broughton's nine on the Footville grounds, Saturday, May 20.

A lady in Westchester county, New York, made $1,300 lately by an investment of $196.25. Alex. Frothingham & Co., 12 Wall Street, New York, were her brokers. Send for their financial report. You may be equally as fortunate.

CITY NOTICES.

A Fine Thing for the Teeth.

The Fragrant Sordolant has taken a very prominent place among the most approved dentifrices of the day. It is a very popular article for the toilet, highly recommended by all who have used it, as a beautifier and preserver of the teeth, refreshing the mouth, sweetening the breath, and arresting the progress of decay.

A Remarkable Result.

It makes no difference how many physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, if you have established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, &c., who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 doses were sold last year without one complaint. Consultatives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all druggists in America. dec3dec1878m

Womanly Elegance and Grace.

There are few among our fair readers who would not gladly possess the rosy complexion, the beautiful form, the cheerfulness and elasticity of spirits, that good health always imparts.

Parker's Ginger Tonic will restore these feminine attributes to thousands whose shattered constitutions are due to functional derangement. It radically cures Dyspepsia, gives tone to the enfeebled organs, dissipates Headache, Neuralgia and Nervousness, relieves painful Periods, and safely establishes regularity of the female functions. It soothes the nerves, imparts ease and strength to mothers themselves, and through the milk to their nursing babies, prevents the Nausea and Constipation which so often lead to a delicate constitution, and greatly relieves the sufferings of this period. It acts like a charm on the digestive machinery, speedily counteracts the weakening effects on the bowels of excessive heat, indigestion, diet, or impure water, and is warranted to cure the worst forms of Colic, Cramps, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Bloody Flux, Cholera Infantum, and even Asiatic Cholera if taken in time. Buy a $1.00 bottle of your druggist, A. J. Roberts, or a sample bottle at 15 cents, and test its extraordinary merits. apr3dewlwns4

This is more noticeable in choice fine wools, which have been rather slow of sale for some time but are now finding ready buyers here when the Boston market broke down to 35 @ 36c for choice X X Ohio and West Virginia wools, and to 34 @ 35c for New York and Michigan fine grades. The effect of which was immediately felt here. Of old fleeces the stock here is small, and although the demand here is light yet we are sold up except on a few lots which the owners desire held for higher than market prices. We have had during the past month several good shipments of early unwashed fair to good wools from Ohio, and have sold them quickly at full price, which shows that buyers here are ready to take new wools in preference to the poor lots of old wool remaining which have had the best young wool selected out of them. We expect a quick market for early shipments of new wools. Utah and Montana and other similar wools are entirely out of market and have been acquired by manufacturers. We anticipate a good demand for them the coming season. Colorado and New Mexico wools are in fair request. The values of these wools seem low, and at present prices we think manufacturers will buy them freely when new wools arrive. There is now a close supply of wool, except on such lots as are limited by consignors above the market. Sales of domestic wool for the month end up about 2,000,000 pounds, and the receipts are stated at 1,000,000 pounds."
A New York exchange says: "The amount and value of wool sold on the market is moderate, and as dull as trade contracts, stocks gradually fall away. The supplies at the mills are under the mark, and the market is moderate. It is expected that the larger concerns or corporate bodies will be disposed to follow the usual course and take in pretty full quantities of stock, provided cost does not greatly increase, but they cannot be hurried, and are very likely to await the arrival of the new clips to select from. The smaller manufacturers in the meantime must continue operations in the same old careful policy, picking up odd lots now and then as their necessities require, and retaining all attractions in the way of suitable stock at low prices and on easy terms unless they have immediate use for it. The past three days have not given any sales that dealers think it worth while to report; but a few invoices have changed hands, including a sprinkling of pulled, some fleeces and parcels of Texas and fall California. The accounts at hand show that the spring clip continues to be held high and meets with some sale, but that most of our principal buyers are coming home without stock having had no faith to purchase at the cost."
